

Update on the new Historical Society building

Great things are still happening at the new Historical Society building. The parking lot and the walkways have been paved. Ray Webber is making great progress on siding the building. Dan Schroth is making detailed progress on the walkway; he states that Rome was not built in a day!

Most of the interior walls have been painted, and light fixtures have been purchased. The electrician, Art Jenks, will be installing them.

Dan Schroth Setting Cobblestones.

Siding is almost complete!

Parking lot being paved.

Sidewalk being paved.